

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Kilt and Kernow requires a non-returnable booking fee of £250 to secure the date. Minimum bar spend of £750 is payable 7 days prior to the event for cash bars. The hiring party is required to provide bank details for the deposit to be returned via bank transfer. Please pay all invoices within 14 days of invoice date. Any additional costs incurred before the event will be charged. Should the circumstances of the event prevent Kilt and Kernow from service, refunds will not be available.

The fully stocked bar comes inclusive of staff and recyclable cups. Cocktails and any additional requests must be agreed prior to the event.

Open/Close

Bar opening hours, set up, and clearing away times must be agreed beforehand with sufficient time allowed to set up, pack away, and vacate the venue after the event. The hiring party must inform Kilt and Kernow of any time restrictions, parking, or parking height restrictions including where we can park our towing vehicle once the bar has been detached. All additional parking/zoning fees will be charged to the hiring party.

Kilt and Kernow requires three hours to set the bar up and two hours to clear away. It is the hiring party's responsibility to liaise with the venue to ensure that it is open and in a suitable state for the bar to be set up (flat ground, power/water source accessibility). Kilt and Kernow accepts no responsibility for any unavoidable delays.

A mileage charge may be incurred for events outside of the catchment area covered; this will be agreed at the time of booking.

Consumption of Own Drinks Conditions

Cash Bar Customers

Guests are required to purchase their drinks from Kilt and Kernow during the event. Guests are not permitted to bring their own drinks for consumption at the venue, including non-alcoholic/soft drinks, without prior arrangement. This is a licensing condition for which Kilt and Kernow retains responsibility.

Kilt and Kernow reserves the right to confiscate unauthorised drinks or remove them from the premises; this could result in the bar closing early and no refunds paid.

Reception/Table Wine

Drinks such as wine for the table or to toast which have been arranged by the hiring party, or another provider, are permitted for consumption during the pre-meal/dining period. Should this be the case, it is expected that the hiring party inform Kilt and Kernow in advance.

All drinks must then be removed from the tables after the meal. All other drinks provided for the event must be supplied by Kilt and Kernow.

Underage Drinking

Kilt and Kernow operates a strict policy on underage drinking. Any guests that appear to be under 25 years of age will be challenged for photo I.D. Acceptable formats include driving licence, passports, or PASS-approved I.D. Kilt and Kernow reserves the right to refuse service.

Licence for the Sale of Alcohol

Kilt and Kernow are responsible for the operation of the event bar in accordance with Licensing Act 2003. Therefore, the event premises, including marquees or private houses, must be licenced to permit the retailing of alcohol for the duration of the event, and the licensing law will be in operation. If no such licence exists for the premises, the bar will not be permitted to open. A hard copy of the licence must be available for inspection upon arrival. If the hiring party wishes for Kilt and Kernow to apply for a Temporary Events Notice (TEN), this must be agreed at the time of booking. Kilt and Kernow will carry a copy of the licence. Charges will also apply as per Terms and Conditions (page 1, paragraph 1), if a hard copy of the licence is not present upon arrival.

Additional Drinks Packages

Kilt and Kernow can also offer a token system where guests can 'purchase' their own welcome drinks from the bar using tokens paid for by the hiring party. The set amount per token must be agreed and all tokens paid for prior to the event. Tokens must be approved by Kilt and Kernow with a recognisable image.

Pre-Paid Bars and Open Bar Packages

A bar tab limit and time frame for service will be pre-agreed and paid for prior to the event. It is then up to the hiring party's discretion if they wish to increase it on the day of the event. Kilt and Kernow will inform the hiring party when the pre-agreed tab is near to the limit set. Any additional amount spent, after the limit is met, must be paid for at the end of the event day. After the tab is met, the bar can revert to a cash bar where guests pay for their own drinks. This can be done via bank transfer or card payment.

For the all-inclusive drinks package, the complimentary bar service will commence at an agreed time. The closing time of the bar must be agreed prior to the event in order to comply with licencing. Kilt and Kernow will not serve multiple drinks to an individual unless it is clear they will not be consuming them all (i.e they are collecting a round for their table), this is to prevent unfair usage of the host tab and allow for other guests to order within the tab limit.

Kilt and Kernow reserves the right by law to refuse service to anyone who appears to be overly intoxicated. Kilt and Kernow reserves the right to refuse service if there is unnecessary wastage of drinks, where drinks are being repeatedly ordered at the bar but not drunk by patrons.

Drinks will be available in the following measures:

- Wine by the glass - 125/175/250ml
- Spirits - 25/50ml
- Draught lager, beer and cider – ½ pint and pint.

Drinks may be substituted subject to availability.

Liability

Kilt and Kernow cannot accept responsibility for any damage or injury of persons or property which fall under the hiring party's responsibility. Kilt and Kernow are not liable for any injury or damage that comes about concerning or involving items/services hired/supplied by Kilt and Kernow.

Kilt and Kernow reserves the right to close without notice, should any verbal or physical abuse towards staff occur. This will result in all monies paid retained. CCTV has been fitted to the horsebox for the safety of both Kilt and Kernow and clients. Any footage required by the authorities will be submitted upon request. Under ICO regulations, Kilt and Kernow retains footage and personal information for 12 months before disposing appropriately.

Additional Information

All bookings to include access to power, an additional charge will be agreed if power needs to be sourced elsewhere. i.e. Kilt and Kernow generator.

Should there be another pandemic, resulting in government restrictions, Kilt and Kernow will be allowing all hiring parties with affected events to transfer deposits, should a cancellation be required. Any balance for additional drinks would then be due two weeks before the new booking date.

Kilt and Kernow provides environmentally friendly disposable drinkware. Should the hiring party require glassware, it is the hiring party's responsibility to provide washing facilities and be liable for breakages. Collection, cleaning, and restocking of the bar during the time of hiring will require an additional member of staff, resulting in additional fees.

DO NOT COPY